Something for Everyone at the Davis Branch Library Tours Every Monday at 1:00 p.m.

(Woodland, CA) – Forget the stereotypes about quiet libraries filled with books. At the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis, you'll find a vibrant, community library filled with much more.

Step-in past the lobby to find a multitude of services such as one-on-one literacy tutoring, lively English conversation groups, animated Mother Goose story times, fast Internet, and a wide variety of movies, music, magazines, talking books and fun summer reads.

For job hunters, the library offers free resume printing as well as copy services that include printing, scanning and out-going facsimiles.

With programs for babies, kids, tweens, teens and older-active adults, as well as colorful local art, comfortable lounge chairs and free Wi-Fi, you don't need an excuse to visit.

Still unsure? Learn more about the Davis Branch Library's collection, programs and services by taking a free tour. Tours last approximately one hour and reservations are not necessary. Tours begin at the front desk at 1:00 p.m. every Monday.
