

Dinner, raffle support programs for the homeless

Enterprise staff
May 9th, 2010

Davis Community Meals, the Davis Odd Fellows and the Rebekah Lodge invite local residents to a "Hand in Hand" buffet dinner and raffle at 5 p.m. Sunday, May 23, at the Odd Fellows Hall, 415 Second St. in downtown Davis.

Gourmet Mediterranean food will be prepared by the Crest Cafe, and the award-winning Davis High Jazz Choir will perform. Yolo County Public Guardian Cass Sylvia, Supervisor Jim Provenza and community volunteer Lea Rosenberg will speak.

Raffle prizes include gift certificates to 3rd Street Jeweler, Ket Mo Ree and Mermaids; Sacramento River Cats and Regal Cinema tickets; Cable Car Wash super wash tickets; a manicure and pedicure at Y2K Nails; and a gourmet dinner for six at the home of Bill Pride, executive director of Davis Community Meals.

Proceeds from the dinner will support DCM's programs and services to people in Davis who are homeless, hungry or on the edge of becoming homeless. Services include food; emergency shelter; transitional, supportive and transition-aged youth housing; and a resource center and day shelter.

Tickets are $35 per person and $250 for a table for eight. Raffle tickets are $2 each or six for $10. Winners need not be present.

Tickets (dinner and/or raffle) are available at the Davis Community Meals office, 202 F St., and Cable Car Wash, 904 Third St., or call DCM at (530) 756-4008.

Business and individual sponsorship opportunities also are available.

For more information, visit <http://www.daviscommunitymeals.org>.