Terms and Conditions

1. The personal gate access card is for individual use. Access is non-transferrable and shall not be shared, loaned, or sublet to another tenant or subtenant, including ground lessors, not listed on this specific agreement. Tenants and subtenants shall be given gate access cards from the County Administrator's Office on completion of this agreement.
2. For the purpose of the multiple card issuance, the responsible person assumes liability for all cards issued in their name and will track the distribution of those cards.
3. The personal gate access card shall not be stored anywhere that may be accessed by an unauthorized individual. By signing this agreement, you agree that it is your personal responsibility to keep your gate access cards safe.
4. No person shall knowingly or willfully allow an unauthorized person access to the nonpublic areas of the airport property.
5. Should your personal gate access card be lost, stolen, or otherwise compromised, you shall immediately notify the Airport Manager.
6. It is your responsibility to notify the Airport Manager upon termination of a permissible access relationship with the Yolo County Airport to have your access key deprogrammed.

I understand that if I violate the terms and conditions, that I may be individually liable for any damage done on the airport property due to unauthorized use of access cards issued to me.
