Yolo County Homeless Assessment and Referral System

Are you or your family homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless, in Yolo County?
Do you need a safe place to sleep or help with basic needs? You can access the Homeless Assessment and Referral System at Points of Entry throughout Yolo County.

What is the Homeless Assessment and Referral System?
The Homeless Assessment and Referral System is a way for people to connect with services related to homelessness in the community. At Points of Entry, a staff person will assess you or your family’s needs and connect you with services such as shelter, housing search help, basic needs, and more.

How do you get help through the Homeless Assessment and Referral System?
First, contact one of the designated Points of Entry below. Tell them that you need help accessing services from the Homeless Assessment and Referral System.

Where can I go to get help?
See the maps and contact information to the right and on the next page, for locations throughout Yolo County.

How do I get help after hours?
If you are having a life-threatening emergency, call 9-1-1.

If you need immediate (non-emergency) assistance after hours, call 2-1-1, a FREE number that everyone can access for information on where to go for help with food, shelter, benefits, and more.
