

“Let’s Start Something Green and Sustainable!!!”

Join Waste Management, North State Building Industry Association, Yolo County and the City of West Sacramento for a series of free Environmental Seminars

Are you a business owner in West Sacramento?

Do you operate a small fleet of on-road or off-road diesel vehicles?

Are you confused by CARB regulations?

Are you interested in reducing your carbon footprint?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, we’ve got the seminar for you! Waste Management, North State Building Industry Association, Yolo County and the City of West Sacramento have teamed up to provide a series of free Environmental Seminars aimed at tackling three environmental concerns: transportation, green construction, and overall sustainability.

The first Seminar focuses on Transportation and Fleet Regulations. Speakers for the first Seminar include:

- Christopher Cabaldon, Mayor, City of West Sacramento
- Cory Parmer, California Air Resources Board
- Matthew Schrap, California Trucking Association
- Matt Jones, Yolo-Solano County Air Quality Management District

Topic: Transportation and Fleet Regulations
Date: March 4, 2009 (Wednesday)
Time: 8:30 am: Meet and Greet Breakfast
 9:00 am – 11:45 am: Seminar Presentations
Location: West Sacramento Civic Center
 1110 West Capitol Avenue
 West Sacramento, CA 95691

For more information or to sign up for the Transportation and Fleet Regulations Seminar, please contact us at (916) 617-4590 or visit www.westsacrecycles.org.

Look for other seminars coming up in June about green construction and October about sustainable practices!

Seminars are conducted in partnership with the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce.
